was a decided fall in the temperature last night, and the weather was delightful for out-loor sport to-day.

There was a large crowl at the race, and though the fields were somewhat reduced through horses being scratched the betting was lively.

The track was in prime condition.

A number of bookmakers are grumbling about starters, companing that Sheridan has let too many faverites off in front in the starts made daring the last few days, but there is no complaint over four out of five favorites getting beaten ye terday.

TROTTING AT BUFFALO.

DRIVING PARK, BUFFALO, Aug. 7.—The events to-day were the 2.27 trot, the free-for-all pace and the 2.18 trot.

It was clear and cool and the course was much improved over yesterday.

About five thousand peoule were present, and the betting ring was thronged with pool buyers.

In the 2.27 class Dawson sold at about

In the 2.27 class Dawson sold at about even money against the party.
First Heat—Jessie hanson and Stevic were lapped to the quarter, where Stevis broke and Dawson took the pole. None of the others troubled him a for that and he was first by two lengths. Abbie V. second, Recker third, Jersie Hanson, Present, Amot Wilkes, Nightingare, Stevie and linuce as named. Time—2.20.
Second Heat.—Dawson was favorite at 5 to 2 for the race, and was bever headed, Aim in Wilkes was at his wheel all the way, and Abbie V. Impeed on him at the wire in third place: Jessie Hanson fourth. Time—2.20.
